207 No. Main St. Barre, Vt. ABOUT THE STATE HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

The first Memorial day ever observed in Vermont, and probably in New England, was in East Concord, 46 years ago. E. A. Morse of that place played the fife at that time and also for 21 years in succession. The first Memorial day ever observed ege will attempt to raise $50,000, bile of Eugene Anderson, while it was a matter of course: nearly an hour and the motor was not left running.

Soon after a young man, who claimed to be an agent for magazines, left various houses in Brandon, articles were missed and the police tried to locate him, but without success. At the house of E. D. Lamphere a $2 bill was found missing, and at the house of Louis Mayhew, where he called for a drink of water, Mrs. Mayhew's gold watch and chain disappeared during her absence.

The G. A. R. post of North Troy will make over its hall and building, with the land connected, to the Woman's Relief corps of that place, with the understanding that when the latter goes out of existence the property shall revert to the istence the property shall revert to the tion previous to the address, accompanied by Mrs. L. S. Brigham, and the meeting monument in memory of the post, bear-closed by singing "America." ing the names of the members as well as the names of all the soldiers who went with spacious grounds.

Southern Vermont is to have a conference which will be a step further along agricultural lines than most of the state has attempted, a meeting being planned for June 22 at west hill, Rutland, which will include farmers, their wives and daughters, from Rutland, Windsor, Windham and Bennington counties.

Prof. G. H. F. Story of the University of Vermont will give a stock demonstration, Miss Bessie Thayer of the university extension service will give lessons n modern methods in canning fruit and vegetables, Glenn C. Sevey, author and writer, of the New England Homestead, smoke-man should and Commissioner of Agriculture E. S. Brigham of St. Albans will give ad-

REPAIRS

We have a large stock on hand and make a point of promotness of filling repair orders. This season will tax us harder than ever before, and prices are steadily advancing. Kindly let us have your repair orders as early as possible, that we may give you better service.
